Assemblyman Alessi signs Cuomo's Pledge for a New NY

Assemblyman Marc Alessi has signed onto gubernatorial candidate, Andrew Cuomo's Pledge for a New NY. The pledge calls on New Yorkers to work together in a spirit of bipartisanship during this election cycle and beyond, to reclaim our title as the Empire State.

"I'm going to need all the help I can get to clean up the mess in Albany," said Andrew Cuomo, candidate for governor of New York. "Marc and I will work together to end the dysfunction and make government work for the people again."

Included in the pledge is Cuomo's Five-Step Plan to Rebuild our State:

- Clean Up Albany – restoring honor and integrity to government
- Get Our Fiscal House in Order – getting our fiscal house in order
- Rightsizing Government – make government more effective and cost-efficient
- NY Works – make New York the jobs capital of the nation
- NY Leads – remain a national leader in the protection and advancement of individual rights and safeguarding the future of our citizens

"This pledge is a way to show Long Islanders and all New Yorkers that we're serious about changing the way things are done in this state," Alessi said. "It will build upon the work I've been doing to make government more accountable and transparent. Together we can bring reform to the next level and change the status quo."
