Suffolk County PBA endorses Assemblyman Alessi

Today members of the Suffolk County Police Benevolent Association (PBA) joined Marc Alessi at his campaign headquarters in Miller Place to show their support of his candidacy for state Assembly. Those in attendance include: Suffolk Detectives Association President Bill Plant, 1st Vice President Jim Hughes, Suffolk PBA President Jeff Frayler, Suffolk SOA President Gerry Gilmore, Tom Tatarian from the Suffolk Police Conference, and the President of the Suffolk DA Investigations PBA John Keary.

“I would like to thank everyone who came out today to show their support,” Alessi said. “It is so humbling to be endorsed by such a great group of people. They risk their lives every day to keep our communities and families safe.”

Alessi is a running for re-election to the state Assembly, and will appear on the Democratic, Independence, and Working Families lines on this November’s ballot. The 1st Assembly District includes the towns of Shelter Island, Southold, Riverhead and parts of Brookhaven.

Bill Plant, President of the Suffolk Detectives Association, said, “Marc has been a great friend to our organization. If we ever have a concern he is always there to listen and help in any way he can because he knows that the safety of our families is of the utmost importance.”
